Business Association

HBA Welcomes You to UCLA Anderson!

The Healthcare Business Association (HBA) welcomes you to the UCLA Anderson School of Management!

We are extremely excited about the club's upcoming events for the 2008-2009 school year. Since its creation a few years ago, the HBA has seen phenomenal growth in its membership and interest in health sciences. We invite you to join us in taking full advantage of the benefits of being an HBA Member.

We look forward to meeting and working with you!

Mission

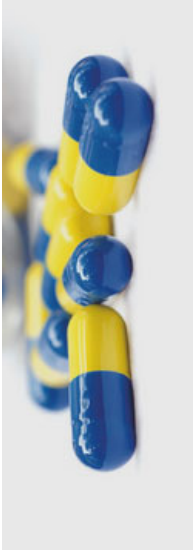

The mission of the Healthcare Business Association (HBA) is to provide professional connections and education to students interested in the business of healthcare. Our primary goal is to prepare members for successful careers in health-related fields through activities including seminars, speaker series, alumni networking, and industry outreach. In addition, we aim to serve as a nexus for healthcare information exchange within the UCLA community.
